

An update on Long QT syndrome in the Irish population and the role of surgical left cardiac sympathetic denervation

Chair: Dr J Galvin

Guest speaker: Prof. Peter Schwartz, Professor and Chairman of Cardiology - Blood, Lung and Heart Department at the University of Pavia

Date: Saturday June 9th, 2018

9:00

Long QT Syndrome in Ireland /
Dr D Ward (15 mins)

9:15

Long QT Syndrome in Children /
Dr T Prendiville (15 mins)

9:30

Long QT Syndrome from the Bench to Bedside to Translational medicine/
Prof Peter Schwartz (40 mins)

10:10

Coffee Break (15 mins)

10:30

Sympathectomy for LQTS in Ireland /
Ms Donna Eaton (15 mins)

10:45

Sympathectomy for LQTS from the beginning /
Prof P Schwartz (15 mins)

11:00 Closing Remarks (JG)

Dr J Galvin

Venue: Fintan Gunne Lecture theatre, Catherine McAuley Education and Research Centre, 21 Nelson street (opposite the main entrance to Mater Misericordiae University Hospital), Phibsborough, Dublin 7